Dear Colleague:

The South Carolina Counseling Association invites you to participate as an exhibitor for its 55th annual conference, February 21–23, 2019, at the Westin Hilton Head Island Resort and Spa. Registration is currently open.

SCCA encourages you as an exhibitor rent exhibit space this year to share your business presence with our conference attendees and earn up to 22.5 CE's. Our members continually emphasize through their conference evaluation remarks the importance of having an opportunity to interact with you and your services and to review your products. Please consider this opportunity to participate in our conference, as our association recognizes your important contribution in making our conference a success.

Exhibits will be open to our attendees from Thursday morning through Saturday noon during the conference. It is our intent to create a very interactive environment for you and our members. Your participation in our conference is of great value and allows our counselors to take advantage of your products and learn more about them and your services.

Additional exhibitor opportunities will be extended for the Virtual Exhibit Hall! By exhibiting during our 2019 SCCA Annual Conference, you will receive virtual exhibiting presence on our association's website (www.sccounselor.org) through January 31, 2020. We hope that you will choose to be a part of this professional association event.

SCCA members and guests look forward to seeing you and appreciate your support of the professional counseling association of South Carolina. For further information, please call or email me.

Sincerely,

Toni Wooldridge
